Confidence in the details.

We coordinate every document, certification and translation. An overview of what the Citizenship by Investment Unit will require:

01 Agreements & forms

Application forms (SL1–SL4), photograph & signature certificate, affidavit of support, source-of-funds form, and post-approval passport, NIC and oath of allegiance forms.

03 Supporting documents

Proof of residential address issued within three months, and the practising certificates of the certifying lawyer or notary and legal translator.

05 Banking background

A bank reference letter from a banker of at least two years, with twelve months of personal statements showing sufficient funds.

02 Civil documents

All passports and visas, six passport photographs, birth and marriage certificates, national ID or residence cards, military service and education records.

04 Employment & business

A signed CV covering ten years, employment letter or six months' pay slips; for business owners, corporate documents and six months' company statements.

06 Police clearance

For each applicant 16 and over — from countries of birth and citizenship, and anywhere resided six months or more in the last ten years.

GOOD TO KNOW

Translation. Non-English documents require a certified English translation.

Colour copies. Identity documents are accepted in colour only.

Certification. Copies must be certified true by a lawyer or notary.

Validity. Police, medical and bank letters are best issued last to avoid expiry.

Who may apply.

Family, defined.

One application can include your spouse and qualifying dependants. Up to three dependants are included in the US$250,000 price; each additional family member is US$10,000.

Spouse	Two persons of the opposite sex who are legally married.
Dependent child	The biological child of either parent who has not been adopted by any person other than the parent's spouse, or the adopted child of either parent. One of the following must apply: i. Under 18 years of age, and neither married nor in a de facto relationship ii. Aged 18 to 30 at the time of application, substantially dependent on the financial support of either parent, and enrolled continuously in full-time study at a recognised institution iii. Of any age, physically or mentally challenged, and fully supported by and dependent on the main applicant
Dependent parent or grandparent	A parent or grandparent of the main applicant or spouse, aged over 55, who lives with the family applying and is fully financially dependent on the main applicant.
Financial sponsor	Charged at US$7,500. A sponsor provides application forms (except medical), standard ID documents and source-of-funds documents, including a banking reference and statements.

GOOD TO KNOW

Due diligence pre-processing. You and your accompanying family may start due diligence with the Citizenship by Investment Unit before the full file is ready, by providing a certified passport copy, a certified birth certificate and proof of the processing and due diligence payment.

Document timing. Medical, HIV and police clearance certificates, together with dated bank and reference letters, are best provided last so that they do not expire before submission.

A personal partnership.

From ambition to arrival.

One team. A clear path forward. Support that continues beyond the application.
